

Jal Jivan Mission Poonch hosts Session for stakeholders

Over 300 participants including PRIs, Paani Samiti members, use of FTK for water quality analysis & Management

RAJESH KHAJURIA
POONCH, JULY 07

Mission Directorate Jal Jeevan Mission J&K, in collaboration with District Jal Jeevan Mission Poonch, on Friday organised a Handholding Session for imparting training to stakeholders on the use of Field Testing Kits for water analysis and Management. The training session held in the Multipurpose Hall of SKC Government Degree College, witnessed active participation of over PRIs, Paani Samiti members including Sarpanches, Anganwadi workers, Asha Workers, Women FTK users, Women Self Help other participants. At the onset of the Programme, IEC Coordinator DPMU, Adalat Khan briefed the audience about the JJM Mission, and highlighted the role and responsibilities of Paani Samitis, importance of FTK in analysing and maintaining water resources and its quality.

The event was presided over by Additional District Development Commissioner Poonch, Malikzada Sheraz-ul-Haq as the Chief Guest. Superintending Engineer Hydraulic Circle Poonch ER. Rajinder K. Sharma was the guest of honour. While addressing the audience, he highlighted the role